

Hasee de Moor and Horny Dave Make Us Work For It

Dead ass, this song is catchy. Whether if it's "Dat ass" or "Damn, that ass," Hasee de Moor and Horny Dave collaborated with a banger "Work For Me." The single, which is a super catchy song for all the right reasons, is a great representative of his eclectic style. You all know, it's in your heads. It has definitely been in mine. Supported by Fool's Gold Records, the song taps into your desires or maybe a new guilty pleasure.

Both artists bring vibrancy, raunchiness, and lightheartedness to the mix. I can easily see this playing in the club or at a festival. "Work For Me" has gained the attention of A-trak. Wait, did you say A-trak. Atrak played "Work For Me" on HolyShip and broadcasted it to his fans via Twitter:

I'm bumrushing everyone's sets on #holyskip and playing this house song about eating ass that's coming out on @FoolsGoldRecs next month. It's lit. cc @HornyDaveMusic

Some additional comments by A-trak also included:

This track has been my secret weapon for a while and it's finally out on Fool's Gold! Yes his name is Horny Dave! And yes it's about eating ass! And yes it bangs! <https://t.co/zkfMHBz84z>

Official Music Video: Work For Me

The music video doesn't include anything about ass eating, sorry we got your hopes up. But there is a corkiness to the music video, which I deeply admire. The visuals make the song so much more enjoyable. It's tasteful raunchiness. Quite frankly, I can't stop watching it. Directed by Nicholas Barat, the song and music video includes dancers as well.

In my opinion, this song lifted me up when I was overwhelmed and it reminded me to have fun, be in the moment and get sexy. I will probably be humming this track for the next three months.

Make sure to keep your eyes on Horny Dave. We expect big things from him. He's only going up from here.
