

The Tragedy of The Las Vegas Shooting

A few days ago, many people gathered around for music. What brings us all together is music ended in one of the worst shootings to date. There is such an overflow of support for the victims of the Las Vegas shooting a few days ago. There are 59 casualties and more than 500 wounded.

A few days ago, many people gathered around for the music. What brings us all together is music. The shooter Stephen Paddock was a resident of Nevada. He had a device that was able to shoot hundreds of rounds per minute, CNN news said. He shot fire from the 32nd floor of the Mandalay Bay Resort & Casino, overlooking a country concert directly across the strip. According to CNN, Paddock was not a part of any terrorist organization despite the false claims of ISIS.

The Shooting and The EDM Community

The shooting in Las Vegas affects all of us. Even though not physically affected. Las Vegas is home to a vast majority of us. EDC Las Vegas hold residency in Las Vegas. So many artists live in Vegas and hold a residency at clubs. Sadly, the aftermath of the shooting is heartbreaking for the families and friends who have lost loved ones. Pasquale Rotella wrote:

A lot of DJ's expressed themselves via social media. Artists like Kayzo, Party Favor, Armin Van Buuren, Krewella, Steve Aoki, Hardwell, Calvin Harris, Deadmau5, Alesso, 3lau, Marshmello, Owsla, Martin Garrix to name a few. Many others expressed their reactions as well. Each one of these producers have performed and some even live in Vegas. It's heartbreaking to see the city Las Vegas covered in grief. Our hearts and prayers are with the citizens of Las Vegas.
